Hello, I'm Charles

I'm enthusiastic computer science graduate with a passion for all things tech! I love exploring and learning about the latest technologies and find the field of computer science incredibly fascinating. Currently, I'm interested in building Progressive Web Apps (PWA) to engage a large user base. When I'm not coding, you can find me enjoying a delicious scoop of ice cream.

EXPERIENCE

MDRRMO

LGU-Labo

Associate - Information Technology Intern
June 21 - July 23, 2022

- Interned at a Municipal Disaster Risk Reduction Management Office, applying computer science skills to address their document storage challenges.
- Developed a database management system to digitize and organize the extensive collection of physical documents.
- Implemented a system that allowed for easy and quick search and retrieval of specific documents, improving document accessibility and efficiency.
- Incorporated features into the system that enabled categorization of documents by type, date, or relevant criteria, making it easier to identify and locate relevant documents when needed.
- Demonstrated proficiency in database management, problem-solving, and communication skills through successful completion of the internship.
